The second edition of the annual postgraduate symposium on LINGUACULTURAL SPACES: Inclusion, Extension, and Identification in Discourse and Society is taking place on 10-11 May, online. This is under the Cooperation Agreement between: CeSLiC (Centre for Linguistic and Cultural Studies) at the University of Bologna; Babylon (Centre for the Study of Superdiversity) at the University of Tilburg; the School of Critical Studies and the School of Modern Languages and Cultures (Language and Society Cluster) at the University of Glasgow.

This event is an opportunity to enhance the collaborative ethos between the four institutions, each of which has an active research culture in the sociolinguistics of diversity and inclusion.
