

Old Version of YAU Website

The screenshot shows the homepage of Yezin Agricultural University. The header is green with the university logo and name. Below the header is a navigation menu with links for Home, About, Admission, Library, and Contact Us. A secondary menu includes About YAU, Admission, Academics, Students, and Campus Life. On the left, there is a sidebar with 'YAU Highlights' and a list of links: Studying at YAU, Scholarships, Departments, YAU Library, Seminars and Research, Career Opportunity, and Download. Below this is a 'Contact' section with the university's name, location (Yezin, Nay Pyi Taw), phone number (+95 67 415512), and email (yaumm@yaumm.org). The main content area features a large image of a traditional Burmese building with a golden roof. Below the image is a 'Welcome to Yezin Agricultural University' section with a paragraph of text: 'The university lies in 19°52' N, 96°37' E with the elevation of 340 feet above the sea level and situated in Zeyar Thiri Township, Nay Pyi Taw. It is 254 miles from Yangon city and 176 miles from Mandalay city. Its neighboring institutes are University of Veterinary Science in the north, Department of Agricultural Research in the south, and University of Forestry and Forest Research Institute in the east. Yangon-Mandalay Highway is running in the west of the university. University estate is approximately 360 acres including its campus farm of about 102 acres.'

The screenshot shows the 'History' page of Yezin Agricultural University. The header and navigation menu are identical to the homepage. The sidebar under 'About YAU' includes links for Introduction, Overview, History, Organization, Location, Campus, Farm, and Degree Offered at YAU. The main content area is titled 'History' and contains a section for 'HISTORICAL BACKGROUND' with the following text: 'In 1924 Burma Agricultural College and Research Institute was founded in Mandalay, the second largest city of Myanmar. It was reorganized as a Constituent College of Yangon University in 1936. In 1947, the college was transformed into the status of Faculty of Agriculture in Mandalay under the administration of Rangoon University and again under Mandalay University in 1956. In 1964 it was upgraded to a separate university known as the "Institute of Agriculture" under the Department of Higher Education, Ministry of Education. The Institute was moved from Mandalay to Yezin in 1973. It was transferred to the Ministry of Agriculture and Irrigation in 1993 and renamed as "Yezin Agricultural University (YAU)" in 1998.' Below the text is a section titled 'YAU in the Past' with three small historical photographs: a stupa, a building, and a group of people in traditional attire.
